JULY 18 2:00PM

Anne Shirley is an imaginative, fiercely independent stubborn, loving, dramatic, orphan girl-who is constantly getting herself into unintended (and sometimes hilarious!) trouble. Her story unfolds where she is mistakenly sent to live with siblings Matthew and Marilla Curthbert on their family farm, Green Gables and her journey continues as she finds her way within a community that teaches her lessons about family, friendship, self-discovery and what it means to truly belong. Loved by generations and perfect for all ages, this world-renowned novel by Lucy M. Montgomery will be rediscovered in this modern, bold production with contemporary choreography, ensemble storytelling and a score that blends folk-rock, pop, gospel and musical theatre. Rated G
